RAINEY IS SENT TO STATE PRISON

Changes Plea to Guilty and is Sentenced on Grand Larceny Charge,
1 to 14 Years

CONSPIRACY CHARGE DROPPED

Willie Bennett, Also Accused of Stealing Tires From Elsbury Pea,
to be Tried Later

Harry Rainey, age 35, charged jointly with Willie Bennett with an alibi of conspiracy and grand larceny, appeared this morning in court and entered a plea of guilty,
and was sentenced to Michigan City prison for a term of from one to fourteen years.

Rainey and Bennett were to have stood trial in court today, but the jury was told not to report late yesterday, when it was indicated that some delay would be caused. Bennett is still at liberty on bond and will be tried later.

In entering the plea of guilty, the charge of conspiracy was nollied,
and he pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny. In addition to the sentence, he was fined $5 and costs by Judge Sparks.

Rainey and Bennett were charged with the theft of automobile tires
from Elsbury Pea, and the theft
was said to have occurred last May.
Rainey was arrested in Detroit a few weeks ago, and returned here to face the charge. Sheriff Hunt will probably take him to the prison Saturday.

Among the new business in the circuit court today are several cases filed, and action taken on other complaints.

Carlos H. Mansfield and Comella
Fisher are plaintiffs in a suit filed against Walter S. Mansfield, et al., the action being for partition of real estate involved in the estate of Zelma E. Mansfield. The complaint asks for the appointment of a commissioner to sell the real estate and divide it among the heirs.

The G. D. Searle and Company of Chicago have filed suit against Walter T. Vandament, the action being on an account and with the demand for $125. The defendant is a merchant of Carthage.

The Milroy bank has filed a complaint against the estate of Zelma E. Mansfield, the demand being for $350 on a note.

The complaint of John A. Gray against Edgar Herbert, a suit to cancel a farm lease, has been dismissed.

In the complaint of the First National bank of Knightstown against Floyd Cox and others, the evidence was heard and judgment on a note for $178.57 was rendered against Fred Kuecht, one of the defendants, and the matter against Cox was continued.

In the suit pending of Grover Kyser against Melvin D. Seeley, a complaint to set aside a conveyance, the plaintiffs have filed a motion for a change of venue from the county, and the action has been sent to Shelby county.

Two claims against estates were dismissed. The claims were filed by the Manzy Company for $14.37 and of J. L. Cowing, Son and Company for $41.70, against the estate of Augustus Williams.

DEATH MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 21—The mystery surrounding the death of W. F. Meyers, deputy city treasurer, remained unsolved today. Meyers'
body was found stretched on the floor in front of the safe in the city treasurer's office with a bullet hole through the head.

$20,000 FIRE DAMAGE

Plainfield, Ind., Nov. 21—Officials of the Indiana Boys School today estimated at $20,000 the damage done by a fire in the institution yesterday. The building housing the laundry and several shops was destroyed.

VANDALS ON DEPAUW CAMPUS

Practically Every Building Smeared
With Red Paint During Night

Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 21—Indignant officials of DePauw University and authorities of Greencastle today sought to establish the identity of vandals who smeared practically every building on the DePauw campus with bright red paint during the night.

Walks, steps, sides of buildings
and doors were covered with a coat of the paint and the letter "W" and "Wabash" were painted in several places.

Fraternity houses near the campus
were also "decorated" by the vandals.

Prof. Henry Longden, acting president of DePauw, estimated it will take several thousand dollars to remove the work of the vandals.

DR. SHERWOOD IN THREE ADDRESSES

State Superintendent-Elect Discusses Education Before Rush County Audiences Thursday

AT CARTHAGE AND MILROY

Also Speaks to Kiwanis Club and Miss Pierson Gives Demonstration
in Music Work

The observance of American Education week came to a close this afternoon in the schools of Rush county, closing a successful week in which every community in the county was reached.

Dr. Noble Sherwood of Franklin college, who was elected state superintendent of public instruction a few weeks ago, was among the principal speakers in the county Thursday,
and delivered messages at Rushville, Milroy and Carthage.

Dr. Sherwood spoke briefly Thursday noon at the Kiwanis club, and touched upon educational principals
in a general manner, and promised to return here in a few weeks for another meeting with the Kiwanians.
He is a member of the club in Franklin.

In the observance of the Educational Week program, the Kiwanis club was also entertained at the luncheon yesterday with a demonstration of the accomplishments by Miss Alice Pierson, county music supervisor, who had several classes of pupils from Glenwood, numbering thirty, to show what is being done
in this department.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils showed marked strides in the musical readings, and the first and second grade demonstrated their talents in rhythm, representing a "baby band" with musical instruments of many descriptions, and the six and seven year old youngsters were roundly applauded by the Kiwanians.

The principal address of the day
by Dr. Sherwood was given at Carthage last night when there was a large crowd of school patrons present, and his subject was, "Growing Disrespect of Laws in the Country".
The speaker emphasized the fact that there were too many commercialized entertainments, and pointed out the dance halls, movies and other things that took the attention of the young folks.

He declared that motion pictures were all right, provided that they were of the right kind, and not frequented too much. Many of the entertainments could be made attractive in the homes, he said, rather than have the children and young people go to other places to seek recreation.

He also stated that the growing disrespect for laws was caused by the loss of parental control over their children, and that the younger generation is leaving home at an early period in life to become the masters of their own fates.

In his address at Milroy in the afternoon, at which he spoke mostly to the high school students and about fifty of the school patrons, he spoke on the value of education.

Prof. Sherwood compared the schooling facilities of years ago with the present day schools, and the more modern methods of education, and in his conclusion of facts, he expounded the question to the pupils
as to whether or not they were making the most of their education.

Physical Education Day Program
This Afternoon Marks Close of American Education Week

LAST MEETING IN COUNTY

Public Interest Has Been Centered
in Schools as Never Before in History of County

A Physical Education Day program this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the Graham Annex gymnasium marked the close of the observance of American Education Week in Rushville, and the observance elsewhere in the county also was concluded this afternoon.

Every school in the county has had a public gathering in observing the special week, which was started a few years ago by the federal department of education and the American Legion. Public interest has been centered in the public school system as never before in the history of Rush county.

The Physical Education Day program was to be under the direction of Miss Marietta Sier, director of girls' physical education in the Rushville schools, and John M.
Swain, director of boys' work. Each school was to participate in the program arranged as follows:

$1,500 in government bonds.

PROBE OF FURNACE MYSTERY MARKS TIME

Investigation of Mrs. Sheatsley's Death Awaits Three Developments at Columbus, O.

PASTOR IS NEAR A COLLAPSE

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 21—Investigation of the Sheatsley furnace mystery marked time today awaiting three developments:

1—Report from the chemist examining a segment of the victim's oesophagus and a fragment of her lung to determine if possible whether Mrs. Sheatsley breathed after her head entered the furnace.

2—Report of Police Lieut. Shellenberger and his aides on whether there are any outstanding contradictions in the testimony of Rev. Sheatsley and his four children.

3—Coroner Joseph Murphy's verdict.

Meanwhile the Lutheran pastor, reported near a collapse from the strain subsequent to the finding of his wife's charred body in the parsonage furnace here last Monday night, his four children ranging in age from 10 to 20 and Franklin County Prosecutor John R. King and Harry Carson, detective, are in Canton where Mrs. Sheatsley's remains were buried yesterday afternoon.

Communicating with his office here yesterday King said he and Carson
would probably remain in Canton with the minister and his family until Sunday.

GOVERNMENT RESTS ITS CASE

Witness Says Inspector Fahay Denied he was "Brains" of Mail Plot

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 21—The government today rested its case in the three million dollar Rundout, Ill., mail robbery trial.

Charles A. Clarahan, New York
postal inspector, was the last government witness. He testified William J. Fahay, once considered the "crack" postal inspector in the Chicago area, had submitted certain connections with the band of robbers that held up the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June.
Fahay denied he was the "brains"
of the plot, however, Clarahan said.

AUTO DRIVER BLAMELESS

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 21—Bruce Kramer, driver of the auto which struck and killed Mrs. Emma J.
Hurst, 50, last night, was cleared of blame today for the woman's death.

Hunting Companions of Jesse Roach, 12, Crawfordsville, Questioned

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 21—Three boys, hunting companions of Jesse Roach, 12, were questioned today by Coroner Griffith in an attempt to solve the mystery surrounding the death of the youth.

The body of Roach was found in a field near here yesterday with a bullet hole near the heart.

In company with his two brothers,
George and James, and Edmond Newlin, Jesse went hunting Wednesday afternoon.

The three boys returned home
without him, saying he had left them on the way back. When he failed to reach home during the night search was started and his body was found the following day.

Statement by Frank Jacqua, Formerly Representing Hawkins Co., Introduced as Evidence

"HONEYCOMBED WITH FRAUD"

Transactions by Which Defendants Absorbed Rural Credit Ass'n
Terms "Crooked Deal"

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 21—An affidavit by Frank Jacqua, former attorney for the Hawkins Mortgage Company, charging that the affairs of the concern were "honeycombed
with fraud," was introduced in evidence today by District Attorney Elliott in the Hawkins mail fraud trial.

The affidavit, the most spectacular revelation of the day's proceedings, charged that the transactions
by which the Indiana Rural Credit association was absorbed by the Hawkins Company was a "crooked deal."

The officers of the association
were paid $20,000 in cash and $100,- 000 in preferred stock of the Hawkins Mortgage company, according to Jacqua's affidavit.

The affidavit named F. N. Arvan,
former manager of the association,
William Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana State Board of Agriculture, and Mord Carter of Indianapolis, former officers of the association, as the men with whom Martin Hawkins, president of the Hawkins Company, made the "secret agreement" for the absorption of the association.

The affidavit in the form of a verified complaint was filed by Jacqua
in the Jay county court in 1922 in a suit for receivership for the Hawkins Company. Later the complaint was dismissed and Jacqua reentered the employ of the Hawkins company.

It was read as evidence by District Attorney Elliott when Elmer Stout, an Indianapolis banker, was on the witness stand as a character
witness for Jones, Jones and Carter were both on the stand today in their own behalf.

Throughout his direct testimony yesterday, Jones admitted that he had aided in the transfer of the Indiana Rural Credit Association to the Hawkins Mortgage Co., but insisted stoutly that he believed the Hawkins company was a reliable and flourishing institution.

Other witnesses who completed their testimony during the day were Harry Bovard, Charles E. Succop, and John A. Clark, all former officers of the Cooperative League of America, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

So firmly did he believe in the security of Hawkins investments that he bought stock and induced members of his family to buy it, Jones testified.

He testified that the Indiana Rural Credit Association was organized to do a general farm loan business and had capital stock of $500,000 par value outstanding when it was taken over by the Hawkins company. The association, he said, paid six per cent to stockholders.

Numerous offers were made by Merton Hawkins, president of the mortgage company, for the purchase of the association before his proposal was finally accepted by the board of directors of the association, according to Jones.

WIDOW OF LATE PRESIDENT DIES

Weakened by Shock of Husband's Death, Mrs. Harding Was Unable to Stem Old Malady

Save For Brief Intervals of Improvement, Her Strength Ebbed
Gradually Until the End

(By United Press)

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 21—Mrs.
Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, died today.

Weakened by the shock of her husband's death and the ordeal of his public funeral a year and a half ago, Mrs. Harding was unable to throw off the recurrence of the malady which had brought her to the very gates of death in 1922 at the White House.

She became seriously ill late in October. Save for brief intervals of improvement, her strength ebbed
gradually until the end.

Mrs. Harding died at 8:55 a. m., at White Oaks Farm.

With her when the end came were her brother, Clifford Kling, of Florida, Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer, widow of President Harding's personal physician, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, and George B. Christian, former secretary of the late president.

Dr. Sawyer who had been with Mrs. Harding almost constantly during her illness, announced her death.
His eyes were filled with tears as he said simply:

"She has died. She went peacefully and quietly. I may have a formal statement later."

Mrs. Harding passed into a coma yesterday morning and early today
she was unconscious.

She was ill two weeks before gravity of her condition became known outside White Oaks, the sanitarium
and country estate of the Sawyers.

Then on the morning on November
3, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, after a consultation with Dr. J. C. Wood, Cleveland abdominal specialist, issued a bulletin describing her condition as "alarming."

Immediately messages of sympathy and hope for a rapid recovery began pouring in from all parts of the country.

The nation which so admired the fortitude with which Mrs. Harding bore up under the many dramatic chapters in her career, as first lady of the land, was quick to send words
of good cheer to her bedside.

Probably no other woman in the history of American national life ever held so securely, the admiration of the country as did Mrs. Harding.

Reports of her last illness drew almost the same universal interest as did those during the attack which she suffered two years ago in Washington.

Behind the tragedy of her death is the story of a brave but a losing fight against the malady, which despite the most skillful attention had reappeared in virulent form at critical times in Mrs. Harding's life for the last 20 years.

Its first appearance in serious
form interrupted for a time the idyllic business partnership which the Hardings had formed on the Marion Star.

Later in the White House her life was all but despaired of. When she finally recovered, it was made plain to her that another serious attack in all probability would be the last.

But in a few weeks, apparently without giving a thought to her own health, Mrs. Harding undertook to accompany the president on his Alaskan trip which ended in his death at San Francisco.

Then amazing her friends by her almost super-human self-control and strength, Mrs. Harding bore up bravely under the strain of the funeral trip across the country and the ceremonies at Washington and Marion.

Shortly after her husband's funeral, Mrs. Harding moved out of the White House, returning to Marion where she prepared to make her permanent home at peaceful White Oaks, surrounded by life-long friends.

At the time of the passing of Brig.
General Sawyer, many close friends of Mrs. Harding predicted she could not live long without his skill as a physician and his long acquaintance with her case.

New Corn Cause of Hog Cholera

Feeding new corn is always dangerous when hogs have not been immunized against cholera. This year, with many spring pigs not vaccinated, cholera is likely to break out any place at any time.

Do not wait until your hogs are sick—vaccinate now and prevent it. Due to the scarcity of all classes of hogs and the large amount of soft corn, hogs will be in demand this winter and spring. Even at present prices, can you afford to have your herd wiped out by cholera?

We teach you, free of charge, how to do your own vaccinating. You pay only for the serum and virus you use. All of our serum and virus is government inspected. Our prices will save you money.

EASTERN INDIANA BREEDERS FEAST

Ohio State Fair Manager, Principal Speaker, Classifies People of the Community

Herschel VanMatre, county agricultural agent, attended the third annual banquet of the Eastern Indiana Live Stock Breeders' association in the Chamber of Commerce building in Muncie, at which the Indiana board of agriculture and Indiana county and district fair managers were guests. Mr. VanMatre is a director of the association.

Five hundred were present for the banquet and every member of the board of agriculture attended with the exception of Governor E. F. Branch, who is attending the governors' conference in Florida, and Dean Skinner of Purdue, who is judging cattle and the Toronto Fat Stock Show.

K. A. Osterle, vice president of the Delaware County National Bank made the opening address. In preparation for his talk he read letters prepared at Indianapolis Monday by R. F. Grant, Cleveland, Ohio, president of the National Chamber of Commerce, and the chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil Co.

Mr. Grant's letter was in part: "We have grown to a unity in this country in regard to relations of agriculture and industry, a rain in Kansas affects business in New York. Agriculture must progress along sound lines. Never have we realized that to the extent that we have been realizing it since the war. Today all of our conferences are directly related to the betterment of a basic industry, namely agriculture. We are earnestly studying it and want to stabilize it. Business men want to see the farmers prosper."

Mr. Osterle in further comment stated business may be slow in coming to the relief of agriculture, but it is now putting brains and money into constructive agricultural investigation work.

G. R. Lewis, manager of Ohio state fair, Columbus, Ohio, delivered the principal address of the evening. He spoke on the influence of the fair on the community.

"This generation has inherited one of the biggest estates in all history, namely our county and state fair associations," he said. "Our bankers have their plans for 1925. Also all successful fair boards have their plans outlined in detail at this time. 1925 is just around the corner. Some of the things which our county and state fairs should do are: 1. Develop leadership. 2. Create community interest. 3. Live stock diversification. 4. Development of agricultural production. 5. Encourage market development. 6. So conduct our fairs as to create a partnership between farmers, business men, Kiwanians, Rotarians, Farm Bureaus and Granges."

"There are three kinds of men you have to deal with in putting across any community program—smilers, cringers and growlers or constructive men, obstructive men and destructive men. The constructive men are always planning for community betterment while obstructive men oppose everything regardless of its merit. Destructive men sit in committee meetings, have no suggestions to offer for or against the proposition, then when they get to the street they give everyone a hard time."

Mr. Sanders, ex-secretary of agriculture, made a brief talk. He pointed out that there were 110,000,000 people in the United States who eat three meals per day. A farmer's job is to grow their meal tickets. Wm. McKinley's last speech at Buffalo was built around the idea cooperation is better than cut-throat competition, the speaker declared. "When a distant breeder comes to your farm to buy pure bred stock and you realize that he is not pleased with what you have to show him, and he asks what your neighbors have, boost your neighbor's animals," he asserted. "Then you can reasonably expect your neighbor to boast yours at some future time. This will develop your community. Breeders and business men could well adopt the motto in all of their business relations to one another the following, 'United we stick, divided we are stuck,' or 'United we boost and divided we bust.'"

15TH DAY OF BOOM

New York, Nov. 21—The stock exchange boomed into the fifteenth day of the post-election prosperity wave today with a turnover of 1,469,000 shares of stocks in the first three hours of the market. Bond sales to 1 p. m. were $15,000,000. The forward movement in prices continued in the general list despite heavy profit taking after noon.

A PARTNER OF SUNLIGHT

Cod-liver oil has aptly been called the partner of sunlight. Both out of Nature's storehouse of energy are of supreme importance to a child with rickets.

Scott's Emulsion

and sunlight have been used for decades to give strength to weak-bones. A little of Scott's Emulsion with each feeding does wonders for a malnourished child or adult.

Keep your boy or girl out in the sunlight and give them Scott's Emulsion everyday—regularly!

Who Shall Enter?—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord,
Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth
the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matthew 7:21.Prayer:—Blessed Lord, Thou art the Teacher, and Thou hast taught us that we are accepted
only when we come to Thee with our whole heart.How Times ChangeThose who had their first opportunity to observe teaching methods in the public schools since they attended school, at the night session of the public schools this week, were amazed at the changes that had taken place.They found that children were being taught something besides reading and writing and arithmetic.Children, especially in the lower grades, are taught that there is something on outside the school room; that this is a practical life
in which we live and that the most observant is the one best fitted to deal with the problems that come with maturity.The routine of every day includes reading the temperature on the thermometer that hangs outside the window, questions about the condition of the weather, the stage in which the moon is, when the sun rises and sets and other things that affect their everyday life.In our day in the school room, the rising and setting of the sun was regarded as an occurrence unworthy of mention and our interest in the weather depended on whether the stove radiated enough heat, or whether the windows should be raised to keep us cool.Nowadays educators have a different viewpoint. They appreciate—to regain Strength—brings joy to you and your friends.EVERY man, woman and child wants to have strength and correct weight. It means the joy of living. To be minus strength and underweight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells,
you begin to become plus. That's why
S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines
that come from thinness disappear.
You look younger, firmer, happier,
and you feel it, too, all over your body.More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. aids Nature in building them by the millions! There are no unproven theories about S.S.S., the scientific results of each of its purely vegetable medicinal ingredients are admitted by authorities. Begin taking S.S.S. today.
It will give you more energy, vitality
and vigor and a more up and going appearance.S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Againthat education is to teach children
how to live. Children are taught health verses to give their impressionable minds the value of good health. They learn to be self reliant by being permitted to correct one another in their recitations.And above all, special emphasis is placed upon love of country and faith in the Giver of all good things.The arrangement whereby more than 600 people were enabled to see the public schools at work will have beneficial results, because it has given them a new appreciation of the schools and the work they are doing.Kicking Gets No ResultsA man worth more than $50,000,
—000 who died last year, had paid no
federal income taxes since 1916, settlement of his estate lately revealed.He didn't defraud the government out of one cent. He bought tax-exempt state and municipal bonds yielding four and one-half percent.Had he invested his money in tangible property that could be taxed, he would have done his share toward bearing the tax burden of his city, state and nation. And he would have paid the government alone $850,000,
not counting the local and state taxes that would have been collected from him.We complain about high taxes and still permit such things as this to occur every day in every community.The taxpayers who own the money that makes the business of the country, keep on paying taxes and keep on kicking.Some day they will awaken to the fact that complaining is not accomplishing anything—that the wealth that should be doing its part will have to be put on the assessors' books
before taxes for the average person can be reduced.FIFTEEN YEARS

Monday, Nov. 22, 1909O. Clifford received a very painful injury while working at the Reynolds & Clifford factory Friday afternoon.
His fingers were caught in a rip saw and he barely escaped having two of them cut off.Harry Andrews King, president of Moore's Hill college, was here this afternoon and made an address before the members of the high school.
His talk was well received by the students and was very helpful.Announcements are out for the approaching marriage of Miss Elsie

mer pastor of the local First Presbyterian church.Miss Georgia Wyatt saw the In-

there.Harry Warner, Leo Flannady, and Miss Erma Flannady of Indianapolis
were guests of their aunt, Mrs.
E. I. Wooden and family in North
Morgan street over Sunday.Miss Frankie Clark was the guest of Mrs. Charles Warfel in Indianapolis Sunday.Tom Kelly of Indianapolis spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kelly in North Jackson street.Mrs. Edith Agnes Murray and Guy Earl Mulbarger were married at the home of the bridegroom's brother in Indianapolis yesterday at 12:30 o'clock. They attempted to elude their friends and get married secretly but were not successful. They passed through here yesterday evening enroute to Cincinnati, where they will spend a short honeymoon. The bridegroom is bookkeeper at the Innis & Pearce furniture factory.Miss Bessie Hays has accepted a position at Lacy's bakery.Mildred, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas of North Harrison street, is ill with an attack of bronchitis.The various ceremonies at the new Knights of Pythias building went off without a hitch today. Despite the inclement weather there was a good crowd out this afternoon for the dedicatory exercises. This morning a reception open to the public was held and several visitors called to view the interior of the beautiful new home.SAFETY SAMTell me what you hope to gain
If you beat a car or train
Travelin' at an awful speed;
Tell me, speeder, what's th need?HUNT'S DAILY LETTERBY HARRY B. HUNT NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON—All sorts of interpretations have been put upon the result of the recent electionProbably the significance most generally attached to it however is that it voiced the people's desire to be done with blocs in Congress and for a definite undivided party control in legislative affairs.Whether that is to be the result remains to be seen. On paper the Republicans have a clear workable majority in both houses. So did they in the last Congress.But the "farm bloc" and the "progressive bloc" which refused to follow the edicts of the administration's party leaders made this majority ineffective by the balance of power they achieved.That one or the other of these blocs, or a combination of both
may accomplish the same control in the newly elected Congress is by no means impossible—nor on likely.So far as the farm bloc at least is concerned it is evident that its leader, Senator Capper of Kansas considers the election carried an endorsement of its activities so convincing as to make its continuance inevitable.THE entire Kansas delegation, which supported the so-called "farm bloc" was returned to Congress—all by increased majorities," says Capper
in an analysis of what he terms "The Nation's Verdict."Of his own re-election largely as a result of his fight for rail-rate revision and other measures specifically designed to assist agriculture—all of which were endorsed by the farm bloc which he headed
he says:"When on a previous occasion
my home state voted me a majority of 162,000, that was thoughtto be a record. But the indorsement on Nov. 4 of what I have been undertaking in the Senate by a plurality of 275,000 breaks all records west of the Mississippi and puts me under a heavy obligation."
Which obligation, one naturally infers, is to continue in the next Congress his support of the same sort of measures he fought for through his first term.THE La Follette leaders in the House elected as Republicans
but ready to follow the suggestions of the defeated Independent chieftain also are smiling smugly
as they contemplate the prospect ahead of the new Congress.On railroad and farm legislation,
and on tax revision they are confident their control in the new House will be even more decisive than it has been in this.They declare that not less than a score of the new members elec-ed as Republicans were nominated and elected through progressive endorsement and support and will be found in the ranks of the "progressive bloc" on all issues where there is a definite cleavage between stand-pat and progressive Republicanism.Out of this same group, organized labor also figures it has added about 10 votes to its bloc strength.THE old Missouri mule for two generations the chief dependence of Uncle Sam's army for transport purposes must look to its laurels. It too is now threatened by a foreign rival.Purchase has recently been made by the quartermaster of the U. S.
forces in China of a dozen Chinese mules for experimental purposes.These animals natives of Mongolia and Manchuria, are reputed to be even tougher than their Missouri relatives to be able to haul heavier loads and make longer
daily marches and to subsist on a ration on which any self-respecting American mule would starve.ORANGECharles Mingle came down from

Decides on Best Life Insurance

"Five years ago I was refused life insurance because of my heart symptoms. Doctors said it was caused from a pressure of gas that came from my stomach, but there medicine did not help me and I was getting worse all the time. Three years ago my druggist recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I took a course of it and believe it is the best life insurance anyone can buy. It helped my trouble at once." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

Football Season is on Wane

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 21—After a most successful season in which public interest reached its highest point, the current football season reaches its finale with a number of "good" games tomorrow and a bunch of Thanksgiving Day contests next Thursday.

Some of the leading critics complained that the standard of football throughout the season did not compare with the game played by the leading teams last year, but it was admitted generally that new attendance records made possible by the large number of new stadia registered the greatest national interest that ever has been shown in football. There are a number of open spots on tomorrow's schedule as several of the leading teams are resting up for Thanksgiving Day games.

The big game in the East, for its tradition if nothing else, will be played in the big bowl at New Haven between Harvard and Yale.

While it will be a rather mild day along the Atlantic Seaboard, it will be one of the biggest days of the season in the Western Conference, where three most important games are on the card.

Four other games are on the Eastern schedule with the Yale-Harvard game, but only one of them has any real importance and that is the Syracuse-Colgate battle at Syracuse. It is a hard assignment for Syracuse as the team has another game booked for Thanksgiving Day against Columbia in New York and a final game on the coast against Southern California.

Penn State plays Marietta College and then takes on Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh next Thursday.

While the Navy is resting up for the Army game in Baltimore a week from tomorrow, the Cadets will put on their final touch of training with an easy game against Norwich at West Point.

Cornell and Pennsylvania, getting ready for their annual battle at Philadelphia Thursday are idle and Pittsburgh also takes the day off to rest up for the Penn State game.

Washington and Jefferson and West Virginia, who are to play at Morgantown on Thanksgiving Day have no games scheduled and Dartmouth is through for the season.

Notre Dame offers a feature game in the Midwest with a contest at Evanston against Northwestern, the second "Big Ten" team on the Notre Dame schedule. Notre Dame goes East again next week for an annual affair with Carnegie Tech, at Pittsburgh and then will have a short rest before starting over again for a trip to the coast.

In the Missouri Valley the competition tomorrow will be rather light. Kansas and Missouri are resting up for their annual Thanksgiving Day battle at Columbia and Nebraska, just out of the Notre Dame game, is booked with the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. Nebraska also has a game next Thursday against the Oregon Aggies at Lincoln.

Alabama, Georgia Tech and Centre are idle in the Southern sector. Alabama plays Georgia at Birmingham next Thursday and Georgia Tech, plays Alabama Poly at Atlanta.

Vanderbilt, which has been mingling around in the Western Conference for several years, goes to Minneapolis to play Minnesota and then has to jump into the Sewanee game on next Thursday.

Stanford and California will furnish the big attraction on the Pacific Coast. It was handed around before the season opened that California was going to have a terrible team and that Stanford, in the good building hands of Glenn Warner, would have the best team on the coast. California, however, showed good form in beating Southern California and ought to give Stanford a real fight.

Southern California plays Idaho at Los Angeles while Stanford and California are battling at Berkeley. California and Southern California will pull up after tomorrow's game and start getting ready for the big inter-sectional games against Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Notre Dame.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF BIG TEN IS PRIZE

University of Chicago Maroons Go Into Secret Practice For Clash With Wisconsin

BADGERS ARE HOPEFUL

Indiana and Purdue Will Battle for "Championship of Indiana Exclusive of Notre Dame"

By EDWARD C. DERR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Nov. 21—With an undisputed Big Ten championship as the prize, the University of Chicago Maroons went into secret practice for the clash with Wisconsin's Badgers here tomorrow.

Five of Coach Stagg's regulars sing their swan songs in this game and as the squad has no post-season games scheduled, every ounce of power will be thrown into the tussle. The Maroons will not have to hold anything out for use later off.

Wisconsin, unable to beat any Big Ten team so far this year, has one of the weakest teams in the school's history but has taken heart by the fact Northwestern held Chicago to a 3 to 0 win. The Badgers refused to believe their team isn't better than Northwestern and on this belief they are counting on victory.

With the mighty "Red" Grange almost certainly to be out of the game, the Buckeyes are given an almost even chance of winning. Although beaten by Indians and Michigan, Ohio held Chicago to a tie which was all the Illini could do.

Michigan's Wolverines have won every game since they lost to Illinois early in the season, meets Iowa at Ann Arbor. If they down the Hawkeyes—as they are expected to do—they would be conference champions should Chicago lose to Wisconsin.

Indiana and Purdue, both out of the title race, meet in their annual battle for the "championship of Indiana exclusive of Notre Dame." The game is to be played at Lafayette.

The other big ten eleven—Minnesota and Northwestern—take on non-conference teams tomorrow. Minnesota meeting Vanderbilt at Minneapolis and Northwestern attempting to stop Notre Dame in a game at Chicago.

Impossible as it may seem, Northwestern fans are actually expecting to bolt Knute Rockne's perfect season. A team that can stop the Chicago line—heaviest in the west—and prevent the Maroons from scoring a touchdown, may have a chance.

25. The first half saw Jackson leading 12 to 9, and after an exciting finish the score was tied at 25 points making it five minutes overtime.

IONS READY FOR THE 'SPICE' BOYS' COMING

LOSES BY CLOSE SCORES

The Rushville high school is ready for the invasion of Spiceland here tonight, and the locals are expecting to duplicate the victory of last week, when Liberty was smothered under a big score.

Spiceland has played five games so far this season, and they have failed to register a win, having lost to Carthage by one point, and last Saturday night lost to Cambridge City, 15 to 13.

The curtain raiser tonight will be played between the Rushville second team and the Orange team. The officials for the big game will be Miller and Best, two well known referees who have performed here before.

Other games of interest will be the game between Carthage and Manilla and Gings will play Alquina at Dunlapville. Cambridge City plays at Lewisville. Connersville at Hagers-town, Columbus at Martinsville, Elwood at Kokomo, Knightstown at Cadiz, Eaton at Newcastle, Shelbyville at Franklin and Fairmont at Greensburg.

FAIRVIEW WINS ITS 5TH STRAIGHT GAME

HAS GAME SATURDAY NIGHT

The Fairview Athletic club won their fifth straight game of the season Wednesday night with another top-heavy score, defeating the Lewisville Wild Cats at Falmouth 56 to 17.

Scales for the winners led the scoring with ten baskets, while Peters followed with 8 and Reynolds with 7. The Fairview team will play Centerville at Falmouth on Saturday night, and the visiting team is expected to put up a fast game.

Miss Donnan's Class in Literature will meet in the Lollis Hotel Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jesse Poe was hostess to the members of the Social Dozen Thursday afternoon at her home in this city. A most delightful social afternoon was enjoyed by the members and refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlors of the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Olive Miller, Miss Elizabeth Hackleman and Miss Flora Redman.

The Laugh-A-Lot Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Helen Stevens in Orange, Wednesday afternoon. The members spent the afternoon playing progressive rook and at the close of the games, strawberries, ice cream, wafers and punch were served.

Twenty-six members of the All-ways Present Class of the Main Street Christian church enjoyed a pitchin supper at the home of Miss Mirian Lucas in North Perkins street, Thursday evening. Their teacher, John P. Frazee, Sr., and his wife were guests at the meeting. The next meeting of the class will be held the first week in December.

The Commercial Club of the local high school and invited guests enjoyed a pitch-in supper and program at the home of Miss Helen Locke in East Tenth street, Thursday evening. Four former members of the club, besides other guests, were present for the affair. They were the Misses Leah Schatz, Louise Lyons, Virginia Hogsett and Helen Spivey. The Misses Schatz and Lyons gave short talks on their ex-

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a splendid meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Compton in this city. Mrs. E. B. Poundstone gave a most instructive talk, on the habits and customs of the Foreign People and how they are corrected when they come to the United States. Mrs. John Jordan gave a report from the National convention held in Chicago, Ill., recently and Mrs. May Wellman reported on the conference held in Columbus, Ind., last week. After a short business meeting refreshments were served to about thirty guests present.

The regular meeting of the D. A. R. was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvan Moor. The regent, Mrs. Willard Amos, presided at the meeting, which opened with the song "America," and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, followed by a very interesting and instructive talk by Mrs. Gibson Wilson on "Strange Days Our Country Has Seen." After the talk Mrs. Neff Ashworth favored the members with a solo, being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. George Hogsett. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Miss Nola Roth, daughter of Mrs. Jesse Guire, and Harry Petry of this city, son of Mrs. Ruby Petry of Indianapolis, were quietly married Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at their newly furnished home in North Sexton street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United

EPWORTH LEAGUE SERVICE

All who attended the service at the Wesley M. B. church Thursday night, say that it was a service long to be remembered. The subject was: "The Sharing Life." The keynote of the whole service was not in doing so much, but sharing the life of the Christ with others. The subject tonight will be: "The Plus Sign in My Life." Scripture: John 11: 28, 29. This will be the decision service, and the question box will be opened. The League will close Win-My-Chum week Sunday evening with a Candle Light Service.

EMERGENCY OPERATION

Miss Frances McKibben, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. E. G. McKibben, underwent an operation for appendicitis and gall bladder trouble this morning at eight o'clock in the McClelland Hospital in Xenia, Ohio. She is a student of Maskingum College and was on her way home on account of illness and stopped off at the hospital for examination where the doctors advised an operation.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

LIFE EBBS OUT

Florence Kling Harding

Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, who died at Marion, O., this morning at 8:55, was born in Marion Aug. 15, 1860. Her first marriage in the late seventies to Henry De Wolfe was unhappy and she divorced her husband in 1880, in Prospect, O., soon after the birth of her only child, Marshall Eugene De Wolfe, who died in Denver in 1915, leaving a widow and two children.

Florence defied parental wrath and married Harding in Marion on July 8, 1891. Amos Kling, her father disowned her and for years would not speak to his son-in-law, though they became reconciled eventually.

The early days of the Hardings were a struggle to put a small country newspaper on its feet. Harding had built a home for his wife but the paper was anything but prosperous.

The outstanding feature of the life of Warren Harding and his wife was an idyllic partnership which first asserted itself when Florence Harding insisted that she be given charge of the circulation department of the "Marion Star."

As mistress of the White House, Mrs. Harding let no threats of malignant disease interfere with the social duties which she considered essential for the proper conduct of the President's home.

The round of official social functions in which capital society had starved during the war and the long illness of President Wilson, was resumed with unprecedented splendor. Receptions followed teas, and dinners followed receptions, yet Mrs. Harding gave no thought for herself.

In the fall of 1922, Mrs. Harding was stricken with a recurrence of a malady which had troubled her for years. She lay at the very gate of death for days. They were the darkest days of Warren Harding's life. He scarcely slept or ate, and the ordeal he went through then appreciably shortened his own life.

Mrs. Harding, lived. In the spring of 1923, the President took her to Florida to recuperate. They spent five weeks in the south.

Then, in June, Mrs. Harding having regained her wonted strength, she accompanied the President on his Alaskan tour. When tragedy cut it short in San Francisco, August 2, 1923, her doctors and friends feared for Mrs. Harding's life. But she amazed them all by her self-control and strength, and through the trying days of the funeral trip across the country, and the funeral in Washington and Marion, Mrs. Harding bore up well.

After her husband's death she returned to Marion.

A Word To Women

A hundred and twenty-one thousand women would comprise a vast army. Yet a canvass was recently made among more than that number of women who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for feminine ailments. The result proved that ninety-eight out of every hundred reported benefit from its use. This is most remarkable evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of womankind and should influence every sick and ailing woman to try it.

He laughed at Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Now read this letter of thanks from Mr. Kane. It speaks for itself. Remember, it is because Kellogg's is ALL BRAN that it was so effective in his case—just as it has been in thousands of others. Only ALL BRAN can produce 100 per cent results.

My dear friend:
Imagine a young man weighing 165 pounds in the course of a few months parked in bed, a weakling weighing 94 pounds. An elderly lady whom I knew since I was a kid paid me what she thought was a last visit. Upon being told of my plight she immediately mentioned your product for such an ailment. Maybe some of us didn't look upon her views very lightly . . . it was to laugh!

My dear friend, I am still laughing . . . not at your product, but because I am able to. I am telling you and the world at large, "Eat Kellogg's Krumbled Bran!" It should be called "Constipation's worst enemy." I owe you my heartfelt gratitude. I can talk, and whenever the opportunity presents itself, my mouth is always full of bran—Kellogg's Krumbled. Wishing you countless days of progress, I am Yours for success,
John M. Kane,
228 Salem St., Woburn, Mass.

Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly to relieve constipation permanently. Two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money. You will like the delicious nut-like flavor. Sold by all grocers.

Movies

Radio, Romance, Princess

Picture patrons of late have been more or less fed up on "high society" pictures, so-called "super-specials", lavishly produced, etc. But now for something that's really off the beaten path of screen entertainment—something with a real kick in it in the line of adventure tales. And that's "The Story Without a Name" to a 'T.'

The "death ray," radio, plots and plotters, fist fights galore, with scenes ranging from the gorgeously-appointed homes of the rich to desert island and back again. What a picture this one is!

Have you got those winter blues?

Does cold weather make your cheeks red or your lips blue? If you're warm, you'll be rosy. If chilled, you'll be blue.

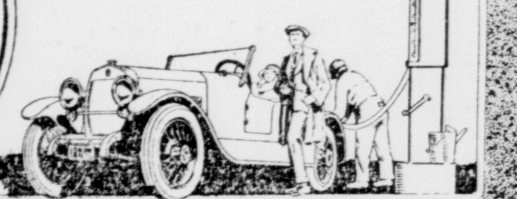

GOTHAM INVISIBLES (Patented) worn under silk stockings put a warm glow in your legs that extends to your cheeks.

Invisibles are flesh colored knitted spats that mould themselves to the leg from instep to knee. Put on sheer stockings and the Invisibles vanish. They can't be seen, but my, how they can be felt!

Make Your Car Up-to-date

The majority of the factories are now finishing their new cars with Duco

YEARS AND BUMPS CANNOT HARM DUCO AUTO FINISH

A finish that will last as long as your car does, has now been perfected by du Pont chemists. Every motorist will be interested in Duco, the finish that resists all the elements, and whose lustre actually improves with age.

Duco Finish is made on an entirely new principle. It is so adhesive that it is difficult to mar. Bumps and scratches hardly affect it. Running the engine boiling hot will not blister the marvelous finish. After the actual use, rubbing with a dry cloth actually improves the appearance of the finish. You can run a car finished with Duco through any kind of weather, it out all night in any kind of weather, without damage.

We are refinishing cars with Duco, doing the job in less than half the time required for an old-fashioned job. Come to our shop and let us do it. Let us prove to you that Duco actually surpasses the claims made for it. You won't be satisfied until you get Duco on your car.

RAINEY IS SENT TO STATE PRISON

Changes Plea to Guilty and is Sentenced on Grand Larceny Charge, 1 to 14 Years

Willie Bennett, Also Accused of Stealing Tires From Elsbury Pea, to be Tried Later

Harry Rainey, age 35, charged jointly with Willie Bennett with an affidavit of conspiracy and grand larceny, appeared this morning in court and entered a plea of guilty, and was sentenced to Michigan City prison for a term of from one to fourteen years.

Rainey and Bennett were to have stood trial in court today, but the jury was told not to report late yesterday, when it was indicated that some delay would be caused. Bennett is still at liberty on bond and will be tried later.

In entering the plea of guilty, the charge of conspiracy was nolleed, and he pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny. In addition to the sentence, he was fined $5 and costs by Judge Sparks.

Rainey and Bennett were charged with the theft of automobile tires from Elsbury Pea, and the theft was said to have occurred last May. Rainey was arrested in Detroit a few weeks ago, and returned here to face the charge. Sheriff Hunt will probably take him to the prison Saturday.

Among the new business in the circuit court today are several cases filed, and action taken on other complaints.

Charles H. Mansfield and Comella Fisher are plaintiffs in a suit filed against Walter S. Mansfield, et al., the action being for partition of real estate involved in the estate of Zelma E. Mansfield. The complaint asks for the appointment of a commissioner to sell the real estate and divide it among the heirs.

The G. D. Searle and Company of Chicago have filed suit against Walter T. Vandament, the action being on an account and with the demand for $125. The defendant is a merchant of Carthage.

The Milroy bank has filed a complaint against the estate of Zelma E. Mansfield, the demand being for $350 on a note.

The complaint of John A. Gray against Edgar Herbert, a suit to cancel a farm lease, has been dismissed.

In the complaint of the First National bank of Knightstown against Floyd Cox and others, the evidence was heard and judgment on a note for $178.57 was rendered against Fred Knecht, one of the defendants, and the matter against Cox was continued.

In the suit pending of Grover Kysner against Melvin D. Seeley, a complaint to set aside a conveyance, the plaintiffs have filed a motion for a change of venue from the county, and the action has been sent to Shelby county.

Two claims against estates were dismissed. The claims were filed by the Maury Company for $14.37 and of J. L. Cowing, Son and Company for $41.70, against the estate of Augustus Williams.

VANDALS ON DEPAUW CAMPUS

Practically Every Building Smeared With Red Paint During Night

Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 21—Indignant officials of DePauw University and authorities of Greencastle today sought to establish the identity of vandals who smeared practically every building on the DePauw campus with bright red paint during the night.

Walks, steps, sides of buildings and doors were covered with a coat of the paint and the letter "W" and "Wabash" were painted in several places.

Fraternity houses near the campus were also "decorated" by the vandals.

Prof. Henry Longden, acting president of DePauw, estimated it will take several thousand dollars to remove the work of the vandals.

DR. SHERWOOD IN THREE ADDRESSES

State Superintendent-Elect Discusses Education Before Rush County Audiences Thursday

Also Speaks to Kiwanis Club and Miss Pierson Gives Demonstration in Music Work

The observance of American Education week came to a close this afternoon in the schools of Rush county, closing a successful week in which every community in the county was reached.

Dr. Noble Sherwood of Franklin college, who was elected state superintendent of public instruction a few weeks ago, was among the principal speakers in the county Thursday, and delivered messages at Rushville, Milroy and Carthage.

Dr. Sherwood spoke briefly Thursday noon at the Kiwanis club, and touched upon educational principals in a general manner, and promised to return here in a few weeks for another meeting with the Kiwanians. He is a member of the club in Franklin.

In the observance of the Educational Week program, the Kiwanis club was also entertained at the luncheon yesterday with a demonstration of the accomplishments by Miss Alice Pierson, county music supervisor, who had several classes of pupils from Glenwood, numbering thirty, to show what is being done in this department.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils showed marked strides in the musical readings, and the first and second grade demonstrated their talents in rhythm, representing a "baby band" with musical instruments of many descriptions, and the six and seven year old youngsters were roundly applauded by the Kiwanians.

The principal address of the day by Dr. Sherwood was given at Carthage last night when there was a large crowd of school patrons present, and his subject was, "Growing Disrespect of Laws in the Country". The speaker emphasized the fact that there were too many commercialized entertainments, and pointed out the dance halls, movies and other things that took the attention of the young folks.

He declared that motion pictures were all right, provided that they were of the right kind, and not frequented too much. Many of the entertainments could be made attractive in the homes, he said, rather than have the children and young people go to other places to seek recreation.

He also stated that the growing disrespect for laws was caused by the loss of parental control over their children, and that the younger generation is leaving home at an early period in life to become the masters of their own fates.

In his address at Milroy in the afternoon, at which he spoke mostly to the high school students and about fifty of the school patrons, he spoke on the value of education.

Prof. Sherwood compared the schooling facilities of years ago with the present day schools, and the more modern methods of education, and in his conclusion of facts, he expounded the question to the pupils as to whether or not they were making the most of their education.

Physical Education Day Program This Afternoon Marks Close of American Education Week

Public Interest Has Been Centered in Schools as Never Before in History of County

A Physical Education Day program this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the Graham Annex gymnasium marked the close of the observance of American Education Week in Rushville, and the observance elsewhere in the county also was concluded this afternoon.

Every school in the county has had a public gathering in observing the special week, which was started a few years ago by the federal department of education and the American Legion. Public interest has been centered in the public school system as never before in the history of Rush county.

The Physical Education Day program was to be under the direction of Miss Marietta Sicer, director of girls' physical education in the Rushville schools, and John M. Swain, director of boys' work. Each school was to participate in the program arranged as follows:

Song, "America the Beautiful"—led by Mr. McIntosh.
Swimming in a Swing—Song Game.
Run For Your Supper—Play Activity.
Washington Pupils.
Hickory Hickory Dock—Song game.
Chimes of Dunkirk—Song game.
Grade One—Annex.

PROBE OF FURNACE MYSTERY MARKS TIME

Investigation of Mrs. Sheatsley's Death Awaits Three Developments at Columbus, O.

PASTOR IS NEAR A COLLAPSE

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 21—Investigation of the Sheatsley furnace mystery marked time today awaiting three developments:

1—Report from the chemist examining a segment of the victim's esophagus and a fragment of her lung to determine if possible whether Mrs. Sheatsley breathed after her head entered the furnace.

2—Report of Police Lieut. Shellenberger and his aides on whether there are any outstanding contradictions in the testimony of Rev. Sheatsley and his four children.

3—Coroner Joseph Murphy's verdict.

Meanwhile the Lutheran pastor, reported near a collapse from the strain subsequent to the finding of his wife's charred body in the parsonage furnace here last Monday night, his four children ranging in age from 10 to 20 and Franklin County Prosecutor John R. King and Harry Carson, detective, are in Canton where Mrs. Sheatsley's remains were buried yesterday afternoon.

Communicating with his office here yesterday King said he and Carson would probably remain in Canton with the minister and his family until Sunday.

GOVERNMENT RESTS ITS CASE

Witness Says Inspector Fahay Denied he was "Brains" of Mail Plot

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 21—The government today rested its case in the three million dollar Rindout, Ill., mail robbery trial.

Charles A. Claranhan, New York postal inspector, was the last government witness. He testified William J. Fahay, once considered the "crack" postal inspector in the Chicago area, had submitted certain connections with the band of robbers that held up the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June. Fahay denied he was the "brains" of the plot, however, Claranhan said.

Hunting Companions of Jesse Roach, 12, Crawfordsville, Questioned

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 21—Three boys, hunting companions of Jesse Roach, 12, were questioned today by Coroner Griffith in an attempt to solve the mystery surrounding the death of the youth.

The body of Roach was found in a field near here yesterday with a bullet hole near the heart.

In company with his two brothers, George and James, and Edmond Newlin, Jesse went hunting Wednesday afternoon.

The three boys returned home without him, saying he had left them on the way back. When he failed to reach home during the night search was started and his body was found the following day.

Statement by Frank Jacqua, Formerly Representing Hawkins Co., Introduced as Evidence

Transactions by Which Defendants Absorbed Rural Credit Ass'n Terms "Crooked Deal"

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 21—An affidavit by Frank Jacqua, former attorney for the Hawkins Mortgage Company, charging that the affairs of the concern were "honeycombed with fraud," was introduced in evidence today by District Attorney Elliott in the Hawkins mail fraud trial.

The affidavit, the most spectacular revelation of the day's proceedings, charged that the transactions by which the Indiana Rural Credit Association was absorbed by the Hawkins Company was a "crooked deal."

The officers of the association were paid $20,000 in cash and $100,000 in preferred stock of the Hawkins Mortgage company, according to Jacqua's affidavit.

The affidavit named F. N. Arvan, former manager of the association, William Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana State Board of Agriculture, and Mord Carter of Indianapolis, former officers of the association, as the men with whom Martin Hawkins, president of the Hawkins Company, made the "secret agreement" for the absorption of the association.

The affidavit in the form of a verified complaint was filed by Jacqua in the Jay county court in 1922 in a suit for receivership for the Hawkins Company. Later the complaint was dismissed and Jacqua reentered the employe of the Hawkins company.

It was read as evidence by District Attorney Elliott when Elmer Stout, an Indianapolis banker, was on the witness stand as a character witness for Jones, Jones and Carter were both on the stand today in their own behalf.

Throughout his direct testimony yesterday, Jones admitted that he had aided in the transfer of the Indiana Rural Credit Association to the Hawkins Mortgage Co., but insisted stoutly that he believed the Hawkins company was a reliable and flourishing institution.

Other witnesses who completed their testimony during the day were Harry Boyard, Charles E. Succop, and John A. Clark, all former officers of the Cooperative League of America, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

So firmly did he believe in the security of Hawkins investments that he bought stock and induced members of his family to buy it, Jones testified.

He testified that the Indiana Rural Credit Association was organized to do a general farm loan business and had capital stock of $500,000 par value outstanding when it was taken over by the Hawkins company. The association, he said, paid six percent to stockholders.

Numerous offers were made by Merton Hawkins, president of the mortgage company, for the purchase of the association before his proposal was finally accepted by the board of directors of the association, according to Jones.

WIDOW OF LATE PRESIDENT DIES

Weakened by Shock of Husband's Death, Mrs. Harding Was Unable to Stem Old Malady

Save For Brief Intervals of Improvement, Her Strength Ebbled Gradually Until the End

(By United Press)

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 21—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, died today.

Weakened by the shock of her husband's death and the ordeal of his public funeral a year and a half ago, Mrs. Harding was unable to throw off the recurrence of the malady which had brought her to the very gates of death in 1922 at the White House.

She became seriously ill late in October. Save for brief intervals of improvement, her strength ebbed gradually until the end.

Mrs. Harding died at 8:55 a. m., at White Oaks Farm.

With her when the end came were her brother, Clifford Kling, of Florida, Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer, widow of President Harding's personal physician, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, and George B. Christian, former secretary of the late president.

Dr. Sawyer who had been with Mrs. Harding almost constantly during her illness, announced her death. His eyes were filled with tears as he said simply:

"She has died. She went peacefully and quietly. I may have a formal statement later."

Mrs. Harding passed into a coma yesterday morning and early today she was unconscious.

She was ill two weeks before gravity of her condition became known outside White Oaks, the sanitarium and country estate of the Sawyers.

Then on the morning on November 3, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, after a consultation with Dr. J. C. Wood, Cleveland abdominal specialist, issued a bulletin describing her condition as "alarming."

Immediately messages of sympathy and hope for a rapid recovery began pouring in from all parts of the country.

The nation which so admired the fortitude with which Mrs. Harding bore up under the many dramatic chapters in her career, as first lady of the land, was quick to send words of good cheer to her bedside.

Probably no other woman in the history of American national life ever held so securely, the admiration of the country as did Mrs. Harding.

Reports of her last illness drew almost the same universal interest as did those during the attack which she suffered two years ago in Washington.

Behind the tragedy of her death is the story of a brave but a losing fight against the malady, which despite the most skillful attention had reappeared in virulent form at critical times in Mrs. Harding's life for the last 20 years.

Its first appearance in serious form interrupted for a time the idyllic business partnership which the Hardings had formed on the Marion Star.

Later in the White House her life was all but snuffed out. When she finally recovered, it was made plain to her that another serious attack in all probability would be the last.

But in a few weeks, apparently without giving a thought to her own health, Mrs. Harding undertook to accompany the president on his Alaskan trip which ended in his death at San Francisco.

Then amazing her friends by her almost super-human self-control and strength, Mrs. Harding bore up bravely under the strain of the funeral trip across the country and the ceremonies at Washington and Marion.

Shortly after her husband's funeral, Mrs. Harding moved out of the White House, returning to Marion where she prepared to make her permanent home at peaceful White Oaks, surrounded by life-long friends.

At the time of the passing of Brig. General Sawyer, many close friends of Mrs. Harding predicted she could not live long without his skill as a physician and his long acquaintance with her case.

New Corn Cause of Hog Cholera

Feeding new corn is always dangerous when hogs have not been immunized against cholera. This year, with many spring pigs not vaccinated, cholera is likely to break out any place at any time.

Do not wait until your hogs are sick—vaccinate now and prevent it. Due to the scarcity of all classes of hogs and the large amount of soft corn, hogs will be in demand this winter and spring. Even at present prices, can you afford to have your herd wiped out by cholera?

We teach you, free of charge, how to do your own vaccinating. You pay only for the serum and virus you use. All of our serum and virus is government inspected. Our prices will save you money.

Herschel VanMatre, county agricultural agent, attended the third annual banquet of the Eastern Indiana Live Stock Breeders' association in the Chamber of Commerce building in Muncie, at which the Indiana board of agriculture and Indiana county and district fair managers were guests. Mr. VanMatre is a director of the association.

Five hundred were present for the banquet and every member of the board of agriculture attended with the exception of Governor E. F. Branch, who is attending the governors' conference in Florida, and Dean Skinner of Purdue, who is judging cattle and the Toronto Fat Stock Show.

K. A. Osterle, vice president of the Delaware County National Bank made the opening address. In preparation for his talk he read letters prepared at Indianapolis Monday by R. F. Grant, Cleveland, Ohio, president of the National Chamber of Commerce, and the chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil Co.

Mr. Grant's letter was in part: "We have grown to a unity in this country in regard to relations of agriculture and industry, a rain in Kansas affects business in New York. Agriculture must progress along sound lines. Never have we realized that to the extent that we have been realizing it since the war. Today all of our conferences are directly related to the betterment of a basic industry, namely agriculture. We are earnestly studying it and want to stabilize it. Business men want to see the farmers prosper."

Mr. Osterle in further comment stated business may be slow in coming to the relief of agriculture, but it is now putting brains and money into constructive agricultural investigation work.

G. R. Lewis, manager of Ohio state fair, Columbus, Ohio, delivered the principal address of the evening. He spoke on the influence of the fair on the community.

"This generation has inherited one of the biggest estates in all history, namely our county and state fair associations," he said. "Our bankers have their plans for 1925. Also all successful fair boards have their plans outlined in detail at this time. 1925 is just around the corner. Some of the things which our county and state fairs should do are: 1. Develop leadership. 2. Create community interest. 3. Live stock diversification. 4. Development of agricultural production. 5. Encourage market development. 6. So conduct our fairs as to create a partnership between farmers, business men, Kiwanians, Rotarians, Farm Bureaus and Granges."

"There are three kinds of men you have to deal with in putting across any community program—smilers, cringers and growlers or constructive men, obstructive men and destructive men. The constructive men are always planning for community betterment while obstructive men oppose everything regardless of its merit. Destructive men sit in committee meetings, have no suggestions to offer for or against the proposition, then when they get to the street they give everyone a—"

Mr. Sanders, ex-secretary of agriculture, made a brief talk. He pointed out that there were 110,000,000 people in the United States who eat three meals per day. A farmer's job is to grow their meal tickets. Wm. McKinley's last speech at Buffalo was built around the idea

New York, Nov. 21—The stock exchange boomed into the fifteenth day of the post-election prosperity wave today with a turnover of 1,469,000 shares of stocks in the first three hours of the market. Bond sales to 1 p. m. were $15,000,000. The forward movement in prices continued in the general list despite heavy profit taking after noon.

A PARTNER OF SUNLIGHT

Cod-liver oil has aptly been called the partner of sunlight. Both out of Nature's storehouse of energy are of supreme importance to a child with rickets.

Scott's Emulsion

and sunlight have been used for decades to give strength to weak bones. A little of Scott's Emulsion with each feeding does wonders for a malnourished child or adult.

Keep your boy or girl out in the sunlight and give them Scott's Emulsion everyday—regularly!

Who Shall Enter:—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matthew 7:21.

Prayer:—Blessed Lord, Thou art the Teacher, and Thou hast taught us that we are accepted only when we come to Thee with our whole heart.

How Times Change

Those who had their first opportunity to observe teaching methods in the public schools since they attended school, at the night session of the public schools this week, were amazed at the changes that had taken place.

They found that children were being taught something besides reading and writing and arithmetic.

Children, especially in the lower grades, are taught that there is something on outside the school room; that this is a practical life in which we live and that the most observant is the one best fitted to deal with the problems that come with maturity.

The routine of every day includes reading the temperature on the thermometer that hangs outside the window, questions about the condition of the weather, the stage in which the moon is, when the sun rises and sets and other things that affect their everyday life.

In our day in the school room, the rising and setting of the sun was regarded as an occurrence unworthy of mention and our interest in the weather depended on whether the stove radiated enough heat, or whether the windows should be raised to keep us cool.

Nowadays educators have a different viewpoint. They appreciate

—to regain Strength

—brings joy to you and your friends.

EVERY man, woman and child wants to have strength and correct weight. It means the joy of living. To be minus strength and underweight often proves low fighting power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body.

More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. aids Nature in building them by the million! There are no unproven theories about S.S.S., the scientific results of each of its purely vegetable medicinal ingredients are admitted by authorities. Begin taking S.S.S. today. It will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

that education is to teach children how to live. Children are taught health verses to give their impressionable minds the value of good health. They learn to be self-reliant by being permitted to correct one another in their recitations.

And above all, special emphasis is placed upon love of country and faith in the Giver of all good things.

The arrangement whereby more than 600 people were enabled to see the public schools at work will have beneficial results, because it has given them a new appreciation of the schools and the work they are doing.

Kicking Gets No Results

A man worth more than $50,000, 000 who died last year, had paid no federal income taxes since 1916, settlement of his estate lately revealed.

He didn't defraud the government out of one cent. He bought tax-exempt state and municipal bonds yielding four and one-half percent.

Had he invested his money in tangible property that could be taxed, he would have done his share toward bearing the tax burden of his city, state and nation. And he would have paid the government alone $850,000, not counting the local and state taxes that would have been collected from him.

We complain about high taxes and still permit such things as this to occur every day in every community.

The taxpayers who own the money that makes the business of the country, keep on paying taxes and keep on kicking.

Some day they will awaken to the fact that complaining is not accomplishing anything—that the wealth that should be doing its part will have to be put on the assessors' books before taxes for the average person can be reduced.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
Monday, Nov. 22, 1909

O. Clifford received a very painful injury while working at the Reynolds & Clifford factory Friday afternoon. His fingers were caught in a rip saw and he barely escaped having two of them cut off.

Harry Andrews King, president of Moore's Hill college, was here this afternoon and made an address before the members of the high school. His talk was well received by the students and was very helpful.

Announcements are out for the approaching marriage of Miss Elsie Reinhardt of Missoula, Montana, and Fred Mowers of Seattle, Wash., son of the Rev. S. A. Mowers, former pastor of the local First Presbyterian church.

Miss Georgia Wyatt saw the Indiana-Purdue football game Saturday at Bloomington and was the guest of Miss Alice Winship while there.

Harry Warner, Leo Flannady, and Miss Erma Flannady of Indianapolis were guests of their aunt, Mrs. E. I. Wooden and family in North Morgan street over Sunday.

Miss Frankie Clark was the guest of Mrs. Charles Warfel in Indianapolis Sunday.

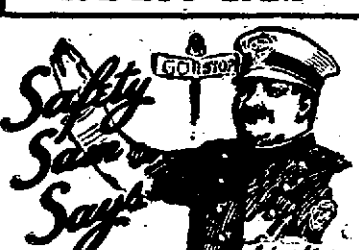

Tom Kelly of Indianapolis spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kelly in North Jackson street.

Mrs. Edith Agnes Murray and Guy Earl Mulbarger were married at the home of the bridegroom's brother in Indianapolis yesterday at 12:30 o'clock. They attempted to elude their friends and get married secretly but were not successful. They passed through here yesterday evening en route to Cincinnati, where they will spend a short honeymoon. The bridegroom is bookkeeper at the Inaus & Pearce furniture factory.

Miss Bessie Hays has accepted a position at Lacy's bakery.

Mildred, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas of North Harrison street, is ill with an attack of bronchitis.

The various ceremonies at the new Knights of Pythias building went off without a hitch today. Despite the inclement weather there was a good crowd out this afternoon for the dedicatory exercises. This morning a reception open to the public was held and several visitors called to view the interior of the beautiful new home.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—All sorts of interpretations have been put upon the result of the recent election.

Probably the significance most generally attached to it however is that it voiced the people's desire to be done with blocs in Congress and for a definite undivided party control in legislative affairs.

Whether that is to be the result remains to be seen. On paper the Republicans have a clear workable majority in both houses. So did they in the last Congress.

But the "farm bloc" and the "progressive bloc" which refused to follow the edicts of the administration's party leaders made this majority ineffective by the balance of power they achieved.

That one or the other of these blocs, or a combination of both may accomplish the same control in the newly elected Congress is by no means impossible—nor on likely.

So far as the farm bloc at least, is concerned it is evident that its leader, Senator Capper of Kansas, considers the election carried an endorsement of its activities so convincing as to make its continuance inevitable.

"The entire Kansas delegation, which supported the so-called 'farm bloc' was returned to Congress—all by in crossed majorities," says Capper in an analysis of what he terms "The Nation's Verdict."

Of his own re-election, largely as a result of his fight for rail-rate revision and other measures specifically designed to assist agriculture—all of which were endorsed by the farm bloc which he headed he says:

"When on a previous occasion my home state voted me a majority of 162,000, that was thought to be a record. But the endorsement on Nov. 4 of what I have been undertaking in the Senate by a plurality of 275,000, breaks all records west of the Mississippi and puts me under a heavy obligation."

Which obligation, one naturally infers, is to continue in the next Congress his support of the same sort of measures he fought for through his first term.

THE La Follette leaders in the House, elected as Republicans but ready to follow the suggestions of the defeated Independent chieftain also are smiling smugly as they contemplate the prospect ahead of the new Congress.

On railroad and farm legislation, and on tax revision they are confident their control in the new House will be even more decisive than it has been in this.

They declare that not less than a score of the new members elected as Republicans were nominated and elected through progressive endorsement and support and will be found in the ranks of the "progressive bloc" on all issues where there is a definite cleavage between stand-pat and progressive Republicans.

Out of this same group organized labor also figures it has added about 10 votes to its bloc strength.

THE old Missouri made for two generations the chief dependence of Uncle Sam's army for transport purposes must look to its laurels. It too is now threatened by a foreign rival.

Purchase has recently been made by the quartermaster of the U. S. forces in China of a dozen Chinese mules for experimental purposes.

These animals natives of Mongolia and Manchuria, are reported to be even tougher than their Missouri relatives to be able to haul heavier loads and make longer daily marches and to subsist on a ration on which any self-respecting American mule would starve.

One Thin Woman Gained 10 Pounds In 22 Days

Skinny Men Can Do The Same

Allweak men and women.
All nervous men and women.
All skinny men and women.

Can grow stronger, healthier and take on weight in 30 days by just taking McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets four times a day—as easy to take as candy.

And what a hit these flesh producing tablets have made—every druggist is selling more and more of them every day.

Everybody knows that nasty-tasting evil smelling Cod Liver Oil is chock full of vitamins and is a wonderful flesh producer and strength creator.

But who wants to swallow the horrible stuff when these wonderful tablets—McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets—are just as good and so easy to take.

A box of 60 tablets for 60 cents—and if any thin man or woman don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days—money back. Ask F. B. Johnson Co., or Pitman and Wilson or any good druggist anywhere.

"Get McCoy's the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets."

"Five years ago I was refused life insurance because of my heart symptoms. Doctors said it was caused from a pressure of gas that came from my stomach, but there medicine did not help me and I was getting worse all the time. Three years ago my druggist recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I took a course of it and believe it is the best life insurance anyone can buy. It helped my trouble at once." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 21—After a most successful season in which public interest reached its highest point, the current football season reaches its finale with a number of "good" games (tomorrow and a bunch of Thanksgiving Day contests next Thursday.

Some of the leading critics complained that the standard of football throughout the season did not compare with the game played by the leading teams last year, but it was admitted generally that new attendance records made possible by the large number of new stadium registered the greatest national interest that ever has been shown in football.

There are a number of open spots on tomorrow's schedule as several of the leading teams are resting up for Thanksgiving Day games.

The big game in the East, for its tradition if nothing else, will be played in the big bowl at New Haven between Harvard and Yale.

While it will be a rather mild day along the Atlantic seaboard, it will be one of the biggest days of the season in the Western Conference, where three most important games are on the card.

Four other games are on the Eastern schedule with the Yale-Harvard game, but only one of them has any real importance and that is the Syracuse-Colgate battle at Syracuse. It is a hard assignment for Syracuse as the team has another game booked for Thanksgiving Day against Columbia in New York and a final game on the coast against Southern California.

Penn State plays Marietta College and then takes on Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh next Thursday.

Cornell and Pennsylvania, getting ready for their annual battle at Philadelphia Thursday are idle and Pittsburgh also takes the day off to rest up for the Penn State game.

Washington and Jefferson and West Virginia, who are to play at Morgantown on Thanksgiving Day have no games scheduled and Dartmouth is through for the season.

Notre Dame offers a feature game in the Midwest with a contest at Evanston against Northwestern, the second "Big Ten" team on the Notre Dame schedule. Notre Dame goes East again next week for an annual affair with Carnegie Tech, at Pittsburgh and then will have a short rest before starting over again for a trip to the coast.

In the Missouri Valley the competition tomorrow will be rather light. Kansas and Missouri are resting up for their annual Thanksgiving Day battle at Columbia and Nebraska, just out of the Notre Dame game, is booked with the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. Nebraska also has a game next Thursday against the Oregon Aggies at Lincoln.

Alabama, Georgia Tech and Centre are idle in the Southern sector. Alabama plays Georgia at Birmingham next Thursday and Georgia Tech, plays Alabama Poly at Atlanta.

Vanderbilt, which has been mingling around in the Western Conference for several years, goes to Minneapolis to play Minnesota and then has to jump into the Sewanee game on next Thursday.

Stanford and California will furnish the big attraction on the Pacific Coast. It was handed around before the season opened that California was going to have a terrible team and that Stanford, in the good building hands of Glenn Warner, would have the best team on the coast. California, however, showed good form in beating Southern California and ought to give Stanford a real fight.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF BIG TEN IS PRIZE

University of Chicago Maroons Go Into Secret Practice For Clash With Wisconsin

Indiana and Purdue Will Battle for "Championship of Indiana Exclusive of Notre Dame"

By EDWARD C. DERR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Nov. 21—With an undisputed Big Ten championship as the prize, the University of Chicago Maroons went into secret practice for the clash with Wisconsin's Badgers here tomorrow.

Five of Coach Stagg's regulars sing their swan songs in this game and as the squad has no post-season games scheduled, every ounce of power will be thrown into the tussle. The Maroons will not have to hold anything out for use later on.

Wisconsin, unable to beat any Big Ten team so far this year, has one of the weakest teams in the school's history but has taken heart by the fact Northwestern held Chicago to a 3 to 0 win. The Badgers refused to believe their team isn't better than Northwestern and on this belief they are counting on victory.

Should Chicago lose tomorrow's game, the Big Ten race for the title would be thrown into a hopeless jam unless all the other leaders also lose.

With the mighty "Red" Grange almost certainly to be out of the game, the Buckeyes are given an almost even chance of winning. Although beaten by Indians and Michigan, Ohio held Chicago to a tie which was all the Illini could do.

Michigan's Wolverines have won every game since they lost to Illinois early in the season, meets Iowa at Ann Arbor. If they down the Hawkeyes—as they are expected to do—they would be conference champions should Chicago lose to Wisconsin.

Indiana and Purdue, both out of the title race, meet in their annual battle for the "championship of Indiana exclusive of Notre Dame." The game is to be played at Lafayette.

The other big ten eleven—Minnesota and Northwestern—take on non-conference teams tomorrow. Minnesota meeting Vanderbilt at Minneapolis and Northwestern attempting to stop Notre Dame in a game at Chicago.

Impossible as it may seem, Northwestern fans are actually expecting to bolt Knute Rockne's perfect season. A team that can stop the Chicago line—heaviest in the west—and prevent the Maroons from scoring a touchdown, may have a chance.

25. The first half saw Jackson leading 12 to 9, and after an exciting finish the score was tied at 25 points making it five minutes overtime.

JONS READY FOR THE 'SPICE' BOYS' COMING

LOSES BY CLOSE SCORES

The Rushville high school is ready for the invasion of Spiceland here tonight, and the locals are expecting to duplicate the victory of last week, when Liberty was smothered under a big score.

Spiceland has played five games so far this season, and they have failed to register a win, having lost to Carthage by one point, and last Saturday night lost to Cambridge City, 15 to 13.

The curtain raiser tonight will be played between the Rushville second team and the Orange team. The officials for the big game will be Miller and Best, two well known referees who have performed here before.

Other games of interest will be the game between Carthage and Manilla and Gings will play Alquina at Dunlapville. Cambridge City plays at Lewisville. Connersville at Hagers-town, Columbus at Martinsville, Elwood at Kokomo, Knightstown at Cadiz, Eaton at Newcastle, Shelbyville at Franklin and Fairmont at Greensburg.

HAS GAME SATURDAY NIGHT

The Fairview Athletic club won their fifth straight game of the season Wednesday night with another top-heavy score, defeating the Lewisville Wild Cats at Falmouth 56 to 17.

Scores for the winners led the scoring with ten baskets, while Peters followed with 8 and Reynolds with 7. The Fairview team will play Centerville at Falmouth on Saturday night, and the visiting team is expected to put up a fast game.

WALK-OVER'S FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Walk-Over

How many miles does a postman walk?

What kind of shoe does the postman wear, that will stand the all-day, every-day grind of walking many weary miles? Here it is. It is just a good-looking shoe, but it is built extra-heavy with leather-bed comfort, as only Walk-Over knows how, for any man whose duties require him to walk. It will outwalk any other shoe made at the price.

Miss Donnan's Class in Literature will meet in the Lullis Hotel Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jesse Poe was hostess to the members of the Social Dozen Thursday afternoon at her home in this city. A most delightful social afternoon was enjoyed by the members and refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlors of the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Olive Miller, Miss Elizabeth Hackleman and Miss Flora Redman.

The Laugh-A-Lot Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Helen Stevens in Orange, Wednesday afternoon. The members spent the afternoon playing progressive rook and at the close of the games, punchberries, ice cream, wafers and punch were served.

Twenty-six members of the Allways Present Class of the Main Street Christian church enjoyed a pitchin supper at the home of Miss Miriam Lucas in North Perkins street, Thursday evening. Their teacher, John P. Frazee, Sr., and his wife were guests at the meeting. The next meeting of the class will be held the first week in December.

The Commercial Club of the local high school and invited guests enjoyed a pitch-in supper and program at the home of Miss Helen Locke in East Tenth street, Thursday evening. Four former members of the club, besides other guests, were present for the affair. They were the Misses Leah Schatz, Louise Lyons, Virginia Hogsett and Helen Spivey. The Misses Schatz and Lyons gave short talks on their ex-

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a splendid meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Compton in this city. Mrs. E. B. Poundstone gave a most instructive talk on the habits and customs of the Foreign People and how they are corrected when they come to the United States. Mrs. John Jordan gave a report from the National convention held in Chicago, Ill., recently and Mrs. May Wellman reported on the conference held in Columbus, Ind., last week. After a short business meeting refreshments were served to about thirty guests present.

The regular meeting of the D. A. R. was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvan Moor. The regent, Mrs. Willard Amos, presided at the meeting, which opened with the song "America," and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, followed by a very interesting and instructive talk by Mrs. Gibson Wilson on "Strange Ways Our Country Has Seen." After the talk Mrs. Neff Ashworth favored the members with a solo, being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. George Hogsett. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Miss Nola Roth, daughter of Mrs. Jesse Guire, and Harry Petry of this city, son of Mrs. Ruby Petry of Indianapolis, were quietly married Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at their newly furnished home in North Sexton street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United

All who attended the service at the Wesley M. E. church Thursday night, say that it was a service long to be remembered. The subject was: "The Sharing Life." The keynote of the whole service was not in doing so much, but sharing the life of the Christ with others. The subject tonight will be: "The Plus Sign in My Life." Scripture: John 11:28,29. This will be the decision service, and the question box will be opened. The League will close Win-My-Clum week Sunday evening with a Candle Light Service.

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

LIFE EBBS OUT

Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late president, who died at Marion, O., this morning at 8:55, was born in Marion Aug. 15, 1860. Her first marriage in the late seventies to Henry De Wolfe was unhappy and she divorced her husband in 1880, in Prospect, O., soon after the birth of her only child, Marshall Eugene De Wolfe, who died in Denver in 1915, leaving a widow and two children.

Florence defied parental wrath and married Harding in Marion on July 8, 1891. Amos Kling, her father disowned her and for years would not speak to his son-in-law, though they became reconciled eventually.

The outstanding feature of the life of Warren Harding and his wife was an idyllic partnership which first asserted itself when Florence Harding insisted that she be given charge of the circulation department of the "Marion Star."

Mrs. Harding took complete charge of circulation. For 14 years she worked in the "Star" office, mapping out carrier routes and organizing squads of "newsies."

Ill health, the first appearance of the malady that finally caused her death, eventually compelled her to drop her work at the "Star."

Harding was elected to the Senate and Mrs. Harding took her place among the hostesses of Washington. She always looked back with pleasure on her Senatorial days.

As mistress of the White House, Mrs. Harding let no threats of malignant disease interfere with the social duties which she considered essential for the proper conduct of the President's home.

The round of official social functions in which capital society had starved during the war and the long illness of President Wilson, was resumed with unprecedented splendor. Receptions followed teas, and dinners followed receptions, yet Mrs. Harding gave no thought for herself.

In the fall of 1922, Mrs. Harding was stricken with a recurrence of a malady which had troubled her for years. She lay at the very gate of death for days. They were the darkest days of Warren Harding's life. He scarcely slept or ate, and the ordeal he went through then appreciably shortened his own life.

Mrs. Harding, lived. In the spring of 1923, the President took her to Florida to recuperate. They spent five weeks in the south.

Then, in June, Mrs. Harding having regained her wonted strength, she accompanied the President on his Alaskan tour. When tragedy cut it short in San Francisco, August 2, 1923, her doctors and friends feared for Mrs. Harding's life. But she amazed them all by her self-control and strength, and through the trying days of the funeral trip across the country, and the funeral in Washington and Marion, Mrs. Harding bore up well.

A Word To Women

A hundred and twenty-one thousand women would comprise a vast army. Yet a canvass was recently made among more than that number of women who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for feminine ailments. The result proved that ninety-eight out of every hundred reported benefit from its use. This is most remarkable evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of womanhood and should influence every sick and ailing woman to try it.

 "The Story Without a Name," the new Paramount picture coming to the Princess theatre today and Saturday, is a pleasing radio-romance, featuring Agnes Ayres and Antonio Moreno. The picture is an adaptation by Victor Ivin of the Photoplay Magazine Prize-Title story by Arthur Stringer.

Picture patrons of late have been more or less fed up on "high society" pictures, so-called "super-specials," lavishly produced, etc. But now for something that's really off the beaten path of screen entertainment—something with a real kick in it in the line of adventure tales. And that's "The Story Without a Name" to a T.

The picture opens with a bang with the first real test of a "death ray" machine. Novel? You said it. And the final fade-out finds the villains in the hands of government officials and the hero and heroine safe in each others arms on the broad decks of one of Uncle Sam's battleships which arrives in the nick of time in response to a radio message. The "death ray" radio, plots and plotters, first fights galore, with scenes ranging from the gorgeously-appointed homes of the rich to desert island and back again. What a picture this one is!

NOTICE OF HEARING ON ASSESSMENT ROLL ON FIFTH STREET

Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll showing prima facie assessments against property benefited and to be assessed for the improvement of that portion of Fifth street, in the City of Rushville, Indiana, beginning at the west side of Perkins street and extending west on Fifth street to the west side of Harrison street, has been prepared and filed with the Common Council of the City of Rushville, Indiana, and is now on file and may be examined at the office of the Clerk of the said City of Rushville, Indiana.

Said improvement on said Fifth street was made by paving said street with bituminous concrete on a concrete base, and the construction of combined curb and gutter and necessary drainage, and said improved street intersects an alley running north and south between Perkins and Main streets, Main street, an alley running north and south between Main and Morgan streets, Morgan street, an alley running north and south between Morgan and Harrison streets and Harrison street. Said assessment roll contains the names of all property owners and the description of property subject to be assessed and which is assessed, together with amounts of such prima facie assessment against each parcel and plat, together with assessments for street and alley intersections.

The Common Council of said city has fixed TUESDAY, the 2nd DAY of DECEMBER, 1924, at 7:30 P. M. at the council chamber, in said city, as the day and time on which said council will receive and hear remonstrances against the amounts assessed which may be filed by anyone interested, and will determine the question as to whether lots and tracts of land have been or will be benefited by said improvement in the amounts named on said assessment roll, or in a greater or less sum than that named on said roll or in any sum and any all owners of real estate may attend in person or by representatives, at said time and place and be heard on any and all such matters.

EARL E. OSBORNE, Clerk, City of Rushville, Indiana.

Attest: LOREN H. R. BATHURST, City Clerk.

Make Your Car Up-to-date

A finish that will last as long as your car does, has now been perfected by Du Pont chemists. Every motorist will be interested in Duco, the finish that resists all the elements, and whose lustre actually improves with age. Duco Finish is made on an entirely new principle. It is so adhesive that it is difficult to mar. Bumps and scratches hardly affect it. Running the engine boiling hot will not blister this marvelous finish. After the actual use, rubbing with a dry cloth actually improves the appearance of the finish. You can run a car finished with Duco through any kind of weather, it out all night in any kind of weather, without damage.

We are refinishing cars with Duco, doing the job in less than half the time required for an old-fashioned job. Come to our shop and let us do it. Let us prove to you that Duco actually surpasses the claims made for it. You won't be satisfied until you get Duco on your car.
